Director of cross country Karen Dennis and cross country coach Sara Vergote led Ohio State to its second-ever appearance at the NCAA championships in 2014, where the Buckeyes finished 26th overall. Ohio State placed fourth as a team at the Big Ten championships - its best finish in school history - and cracked the USTFCCCA Top 20 poll for the first time.

Senior Katie Borchers repeated as an All-American for the Buckeyes, finishing 34th at the NCAA meet, and became the first Buckeye in school history to be named a two-time All-Big Ten performer after taking ninth at the conference championship. Fellow senior Michelle Thomas finished 20th at the Big Ten meet and earned the third All-Region award of her career.
